

The 10-Minute Life Audit

A clear picture, then one small move.

Eight areas. One score each. Ten minutes. You’ll end up with a number, a picture, and one thing to do this week — which is more than most of us start the month with.

HOW TO SCORE

Score each area 0–10 for how it is right now, not how it should be and not how it was last year. First instinct. Don’t average your whole life into a 7.

This is a structured self-reflection tool. It is not a diagnosis, an assessment or therapy. If something here worries you, talk to someone qualified — that is a strong move, not a weak one.

STEP ONE · SCORE

Where things actually are

Health

Energy, sleep, movement, how your body feels day to day.

STEP TWO • SEE IT

Your wheel

Mark each score on its spoke, then join the marks. Shade it in if you like. The shape matters more than the numbers — you’re looking for the dents.

○ LOWEST AREA:

HIGHEST AREA:

THE ONE THAT SURPRISED ME:

A dented wheel is normal. A dent you’ve named is workable.

STEP THREE • MOVE

One small move

Take your lowest area — or the one that surprised you, which is often the real answer. Don’t fix it. Just make one move this week.

IF YOU WANT MORE

This audit gives you the picture. The Balance Audit gives you the rest of the method: guided questions for all eight areas so the scores are honest, a gap map, three standing rules, a 30-day plan, and twelve monthly re-scores so you can watch the shape change.

This free audit is complete as it is — the paid one goes deeper, it doesn’t unlock this.
